"Ghost Towns by Dusk"

Guided driving tour and preview of SueAnn Martell's next book, Coal Camps of Eastern Utah through the area ghost towns. Stay until dark for some scary (but true!) local ghost stories. Admission is by donation. Caravan starts at the Western Mining & Railroad Museum.

Thursday, June 5, 2008 @ 7PM

"2nd Annual Bordello Ball"

Come celebrate Helper's unique past with the 2nd Annual Bordello Ball. The event features a sit down dinner, lecture by Utah outlaw and lawman historian Joel Frandsen, and a live auction. All proceeds benefit the Western Mining & Railroad Museum Expansion Project. Old West style costumes are encouraged. Don't worry tenderfeet, no dancing is involved, but we guarantee that you will have a "ball!" At the Helper Civic Auditorium. Advanced tickets are required - $25 per person or $45 per couple.

Friday, June 6 @ NOON-7PM & Saturday, June 7 @ 9AM - 6PM

"1st Annual Helper Model Railroad Show"

The Ophir Tintic Model Railroad Club displays their model setups from tiny "N" scale and some "HO" scale! At the Helper Civic Auditorium. Free Admission.

Friday, June 6 @ 6PM

"Old West Evening Outdoors"

Famed local Helper band Hillbilly Voodoo and Old West Entertainment at the Main Street Park Stage (next to the Post Office). Bring your lawn chairs or blanket. Food available for sale. Admission is free.

Saturday, June 7, 2008 @ 8AM - 10AM

"Old West Chuckwagon Breakfast"

At the Balance Rock Eatery - 148 South Main Street, Helper.

Saturday, June 7, 2008 @ 10AM - 4PM

"Family Heritage Day"

Guided Museum tours! Old West shootouts by the Balanced Rock Regulators! Mining safety demonstrations by West Ridge Coal Mine at Main Street Park! The 1st Annual Butch Cassidy Look-a-Like Contest! Old Time photographs with "real" outlaws! Food & Vendors' Row! Helper Merchants' Sidewalk Sale! Admission is free.

Saturday, June 7, 2008 @ 2:30PM - 5PM

"Bordello Bed Race"

Come see some of Utah's fastest themed Racing Bordello Beds and Teams compete down Helper's Main Street. Spectator admission is free.

Admission to most events is free, but donations are appreciated. Turn of the century costumes are encouraged at all events, but not required.
