Also on Saturday October 6, 2007

Western Mining & Railroad Museum Director and local historian SueAnn Martell will be holding a book signing for her new book Rails Around Helper published by national history publisher Arcadia Publishing. This 128 page book features never before seen photographs of the railroads and branch lines of Helper from 1880 through 1960. The books are available at the museum for $19.99 and make great Christmas gifts.

Light refreshments will be served. All events are free of charge.
